Major sponsors Relief Bed International and Serta Simmons Bedding have committed to a complete sleep Makeover for all residents of Fisher Place by donating new mattresses and pillows along with contributing many Auction items including high-end mattresses and sleep accessories for gift baskets, pajamas, sheet sets, pillow cases, sleep masks. Skin lotions donated by Connie Stevens Forever Spring Gifts. The benefit is produced by Joely Fisher, Scott Smalling, Steve Tyler, and David Wildman of Wildman Event Group.

In 2019, with new funding from the Department of Health Services, the Alcott Center opened the ‘Fisher Place’, a bridge housing facility located in the South-Central area of Los Angeles. Fisher Place brings 43 men with mental health issues being redirected from incarceration into the care of the Alcott Center. While living at the Fisher Place, residents are linked to both mental and traditional health care services and assisted in finding permanent housing. Fisher Place is supported by the generosity of Actress/Director/Mental Health Advocate Joely Fisher and the Fisher Family.

Established in 1979, the Alcott Center for Mental Health Services is a nonprofit agency providing residential and outpatient services to adults living with mental health issues, many of whom are experiencing co-occurring substance misuse, homelessness and/or former incarceration.

Tickets & Sponsorships from $50 - $25,000. For more information and to purchase tickets, please visit website <https://alcottcenter.org/pajama-jam/>
